

How do you treat your patients while they wait?

Engaged Patients Begin with AccentHealth.

Since 1995, AccentHealth has been dedicated to educating, entertaining & engaging patients while they wait to see their doctor. More than 12,300 doctor's offices and 44,000 physicians choose AccentHealth for their waiting rooms nationwide.

Hosted by CNN's Dr. Sanjay Gupta & HLN's Robin Meade, with nationally recognized guest experts, AccentHealth is the only waiting room television network that provides superior programming produced in partnership with the CNN Medical Unit.

AccentHealth strengthens the doctor-patient relationship by encouraging dialogue, & helps you reach your patient engagement goals.

From Wellness to Condition Management, AccentHealth's Five Specialized Networks Feature Content Your Patients Want to Watch.

- AccentHealth Primary Care Network
- AccentHealth Silver Network
- AccentHealth Pediatric Network
- AccentHealth OB/GYN Network
- AccentHealth Rheumatology Network

At AccentHealth, we are dedicated to helping you enhance your patients' waiting room experience and use that time to your advantage. Your patients will respect your choice of AccentHealth as the premier patient education platform during every office visit.
